

Social Security Rag

by Ray Korona

moderately

D G D G

1. So - cial Se - cur - i - ty al - ways took a chunk of my week - ly
2. Wall Street prof - its were fly - ing high. Then the bub - ble
3. Things that you say you're for-- val - ues you in -

D G

pay burst. for ben - e - fits it doled out and voke-- So you cut taxes for the rich and Ne - ver match what you do. You

Em A G

funds it stored a - way. I knew when I got too put big mon - ey first. You pushed us in - to a treat it like a joke. If you real - ly want to old to work I'd still sur - vive o - kay.

D G D

sense - less war and emp - tied out the
do what's right in - stead of blow - ing purse.
smoke:

Em A<sup>7</sup>

Now you say my mon - ey's gone. Go buy some stocks and You're gon - na teach me to save! Our roles should be re -
Hands off So - cial Se - cur - i - ty! Don't leave our sen - iors

D G

pray!
versed.
broke.

I've got rent bills, e - lec - tric bills

D A D

med - i - cal and den - tal bills and eat - ing's not a low pri - or - it - y. I need

G D G

bus fare, clothes to wear shoe re - pair and a pair of glas - ses so I still can see. Here's a dose of re - al - i - ty: My So - cial Se - cur - i - ty be - longs to me.

A D G D

G D

1.,2. 3. Fine